

Bio for Louise Butler – Big Cello Day Out

In almost 50 years of teaching the cello in her own private studio, public and private schools, Wollongong Conservatorium, ANU School of Music, conducting student string orchestras in schools and with Canberra Youth Music, Louise has developed many successful, creative and entertaining methods for teaching fundamental pedagogical principles of string playing. She is a Life Member of Canberra Youth Music (now Music for Canberra) and was nominated for an Aria Music Teacher Award in 2017.
