

BIG CELLO DAY OUT

Wednesday 11 JULY 2018
UWA Conservatorium Of Music

AUSTA in conjunction with UWA Conservatorium of Music and the West Australian Symphony Orchestra invite all cellists from all areas of the cello playing/teaching community to come and take part in the Big Cello Day Out.

Activities will include:

- Opportunities for junior, intermediate and advanced students to play and receive feedback from expert teachers
- Cello ensemble workshops
- Chance for teachers of junior, secondary and tertiary students to observe and participate in discussion forums with guest teachers.

Visiting cellists include Thomas Gregory (UK), David Pereira (ANU) and Alvin Wong (Melbourne), Louise Butler (ACT) among others, will provide expert insights and feedback to participants.

The day will conclude with a master class by WASO soloist and international cellist, Pablo Ferrández.

The full program, including more detailed information, application to participate, and registration details for individual sessions can be found at www.austa.asn.au/2018-national-conference/

Please direct expressions of interest and enquiries to bigcelloaday@inet.net.au

Registration can be made for individual sessions, combined sessions or the whole day. Special discounts are available for AUSTA National Conference delegates, AUSTA members and students. Attendance at all sessions is free for Australian tertiary music students with current university ID. A catered lunch may be ordered online along with your registration.
