Certified Professional Development for String Teachers

This teacher-training course is a presentation and discussion on ways to teach posture and the bow-hold to beginner cellists. Discover Louise's imaginative games and exercises from pirates to bicycles! Visiting from Canberra, Louise Butler has been teaching the cello for over 47 years, played professionally in the Canberra Symphony Orchestra and has conducted youth string orchestras since 1990. Louise is currently an AUSTA National Board member and President of AUSTA ACT. Her presentations and workshops have reached string players across Australia and she often writes pedagogical articles for Stringendo magazine.
