Presents

2023 String Performers Festival

We are very excited to be presenting our ninth String Performers' Festival - a welcoming, non-competitive performance opportunity for students. String students of all levels are welcome and all performers will receive written feedback and a medallion.

Sunday, September 10
9am – 2pm

There will be five sessions on the day to choose from. A Festival Accompanist will be available for Preliminary – Grade 4 pieces on the day.
